Hi, we've just released an update to P2A Nav. Here's what changed:

New Features

- The Capability Heatmap got some visualization improvements.
 - You can switch between Distribution display mode and an Average display mode when viewing a set of child nodes within a node; for example, viewing all of the teams within an organization or all teams within a system.
 - Empty scores can be toggled off for the distribution display mode.
 - Trend icons have been added to indicate progress up or down compared to the last score when in the Average display mode or when viewing a single node.
 - Added information about the context above the stages.

Capability Heatmap

View all agile capability progress at a glance for an organization, system, or team. Select an Agile Outcome or Capability to view more information about it.
