Hi, we have new release information for P2A Nav.
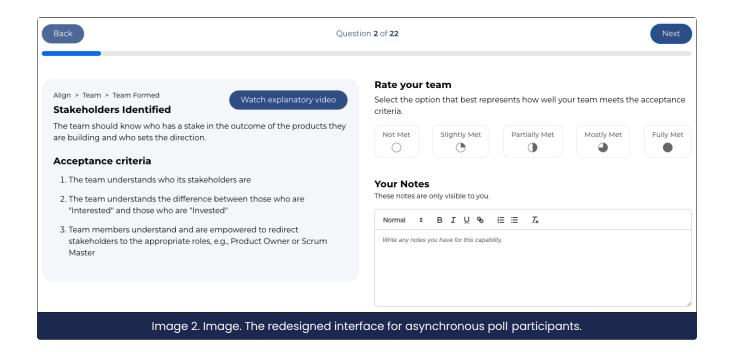

Here's what we're releasing:

Beta Features

Redesigned Asynchronous Poll Participant Interface

We've redesigned the interface for asynchronous poll participants to improve the layout and experience. Image 1 below is a screenshot of the current layout. Image 2 is the redesigned view with elements thoughtfully placed and laid out for an improved user experience.

Stakeholders Identified

Watch explanatory video

The team should know who has a stake in the outcome of the products they are building and who sets the direction.

Acceptance criteria

1. The team understands who its stakeholders are

2. The team understands the difference between those who are "Interested" and those who are "Invested"

3. Team members understand and are empowered to redirect stakeholders to the appropriate roles, e.g., Product Owner or Scrum Master
